Existentiell Temporality

	PAST	PRESENT	FUTURE
Temporality of authentic Dasein 1. Phronisis (Resoluteness) 2. Historicizing (Anticipatory resoluteness)	Resolute (Guilty). Indebted to ungrounded practices. Coming-back-to its thrownness as having-been. Repetition Takes up its factual thrownness and adapts it to the Situation. Repetition of possibilities in the cultural heritage Loyalty - perpetuating a role by transforming it. Reciprocatve rejoinder. Steadfast but flexible.	General Augenblick (taking in the whole Situation and taking action). Waiting-towards Carried away into the Situation. Seizes the moment (Kairos). (BP 288) Sees a new reality and that it's its job to bring it about Moment of transformation of self and world (Kierkegaardian Augenblick).	Anticipation of possible world collapse. (Being-towards-Death) Coming-towards-itself For-the-sake of doing the appropriate thing, at the appropriate time, in the appropriate way. Transforms its identity (its fate). (Transforms a cultural role.) Defines the issue for its generation. Transforms its culture's identity (its culture's destiny).
Temporality of non-authentic Dasein. 1. Inauthentic 2. Authentic coping	Repudiating (its thrownness) Retaining and forgetting in a derivative sense Too flexible (forgets thrownness) Too rigid (denying groundlessness). Retaining what really matters	Making present,(absorption) Absorbed in the general situation. Reacting to successes and failures. Curiosity, distracton Following the procedures and standards of the one. Absorbed in the concrete Situation	Awaiting (results) Expecting success or failure Taking up whatever works for now (the feasible) Pursuing the urgent, feasible, and indispensable. For the sake of ownmost possibility.
