You Are Cordially Invited To Attend Our Annual Awards Dinner

Alumnus of the Year:

Niels Tangherlini (BA '99), a Paramedic Captain with the San Francisco Fire Department, has received accolades for creating the Homeless Outreach and Medical Emergency Team, which partners with social workers to deliver social services and medical treatment of high-frequency users of 911. Its goal is to get clients into long-term treatment programs. In 2007, he received a Jefferson Award for people making a difference in their communities.

Teacher of the Year:

Mary M. Cavanaugh, Ph.D., MFT earned a joint degree at the University of Pennsylvania in Social Welfare and Criminology in 2007. She also holds an MFT. She is an expert on domestic violence with extensive teaching, clinical, and research experience. It is a testament to her outstanding teaching that she has won this award in her first year as an Assistant Professor.
