I. Distinction between the Movement of Resignation and the Knight of Resignation

Knight of Resignation

Knight of Faith (Higher Immediacy)

Movement of Resignation

Self Sufficient (rather than dependent)

The Instant

Unconditional Commitment

The ethical/the universal

Lower Natures

(Infatuation, etc.)

II. The Temptation of the Ethical

Individual

Higher Immediacy

Unconditional Commitment

Trial

Universal

Ethical

Mediation

Intelligibility

Outer

Temptation or sin

Guilt, repentence, and expiation

III. Getting a New Defining Commitment (MIT version)

\[ X \rightarrow Y \] \hspace{1cm} \text{Defining Commitment}

\[ X \rightarrow [Y] \] \hspace{1cm} \text{Knight of Resignation. Idealization}

\[ Xy \rightarrow Z \] \hspace{1cm} \text{Knight of Faith}

(Investigates the previous commitment and relates to the new one in the light of it.)